

Program Outcomes (POs) for a Master of Arts (M.A.) program (In Economics) have been decided by the respective Board of Studies and the faculty of Mental Moral Social Sciences of the Savitribai Phule Pune University, and the college offers the Master of Arts program approved by the university. These Program Outcomes (POs) for a Master of Arts (M.A.) program in Economics are designed to equip students with advanced knowledge, analytical skills, and expertise in economic theory, policy analysis, and research methodologies. Upon completing an M.A. program in Economics, students are expected to demonstrate a high level of proficiency in various areas of economics.

The Program Outcomes for an M.A. program in Economics:

Programme Outcomes

Sr. No.	Programme Outcomes	Explanation
PO-1	Advanced Economic Knowledge	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will deeply understand advanced economic theories, concepts, and models and their applications to real-world economic issues.
PO-2	Quantitative and Analytical Skills	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will possess strong quantitative and analytical skills, enabling them to analyse complex economic data, conduct empirical research, and apply advanced statistical and econometric techniques.
PO-3	Policy Analysis	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates can analyse economic policies, evaluate their impact on various stakeholders, and provide evidence-based recommendations to address economic challenges and promote sustainable development.
PO-4	Economic Research	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates can design and conduct independent economic research, including formulating research questions, collecting and analysing data, and presenting research findings effectively.
PO-5	Applied Microeconomics and Macroeconomics	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will specialise in either microeconomics or macroeconomics, demonstrating expertise in their chosen area and understanding the interconnections between microeconomic and macroeconomic phenomena.
PO-6	Econometric Modeling	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will be proficient in econometric modelling, including regression analysis, time series analysis, and other advanced econometric techniques, to analyse economic relationships and forecast economic variables.

PO-7	Policy Evaluation	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will have the skills to evaluate the effectiveness of economic policies and programs, including cost-benefit analysis and impact evaluation methods.
PO-8	International Economics	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will understand international trade, finance, and economic relations, including global financial institutions, trade policies, exchange rates, and their implications for domestic and international economies.
PO-9	Communication Skills	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates can communicate complex economic ideas and research findings clearly and persuasively through written reports, presentations, and data visualisation.
PO-10	Professional Development	M. A. (in Economics) Graduates will engage in continuous professional development, including staying updated with the latest economic research, methodologies, and policy debates and actively participating in academic and professional communities.

