

Program Outcomes (POs) for a Master of Arts (M.A.) program (In History) have been decided by the respective Board of Studies and the faculty of Mental Moral Social Sciences of the Savitribai Phule Pune University, and the college offers the Master of Arts program approved by the university. Program Outcomes (POs) for a Master of Arts (M.A.) program in History are designed to provide students with advanced knowledge, critical thinking skills, and research expertise in history. Graduates of an M.A. program in History are expected to demonstrate a deep understanding of historical events, trends, and methodologies and the ability to conduct original research and effectively communicate historical knowledge.

The Program Outcomes for an M.A. program in History:

Sr. No.	Programme Outcomes	Explanation
PO-1	Historical Knowledge:	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will comprehensively understand various historical periods, cultures, and civilisations, including significant national and global historical movements, movements, and figures.
PO-2	Historiography	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will be familiar with the primary historiographical debates, theories, and methods in history and critically engage with diverse historical interpretations.
PO-3	Critical Analysis	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will be able to critically analyse historical sources, texts, and narratives, considering their context, biases, and implications, and use this analysis to construct well-supported historical arguments.
PO-4) Historical Writing	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will be proficient in historical writing, producing clear, coherent, and well-organized essays, research papers, and theses that adhere to scholarly conventions and standards.
PO-5	Research Skills	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will demonstrate advanced research skills, including formulating research questions, locating and evaluating primary and secondary sources, and applying appropriate research methodologies.
PO-6	Public History and Communication	M. A. (In History) Through exhibitions, digital media, public lectures, and educational programs, graduates can communicate historical knowledge effectively to diverse audiences, including the public, policymakers, and other non-specialist groups.

PO-7	Ethical Awareness	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will be aware of ethical issues related to historical research, such as plagiarism, intellectual property rights, and cultural sensitivity, and adhere to ethical standards in their work.
PO-8	Teaching and Education	M. A. (In History) For educational programs, graduates will be prepared to teach history at various academic levels, demonstrating pedagogical skills and curriculum development expertise.
PO-9	Collaboration and Teamwork	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will work effectively in collaborative research projects, demonstrating the ability to collaborate with colleagues, scholars, and institutions in the field of history
PO-10	Professional Development	M. A. (In History) Postgraduates will continue professional development, including academic conferences, research publications, and active involvement in professional historical organisations.